

Acquisition of pigtail fiber in East Africa

Overview

East African telcos Ethio Telecom, Djibouti Telecom and the Sudatel Group have turned their cross-border optical fiber memorandum of understanding (MoU) into a binding agreement. The agreement is aimed at strengthening regional connectivity and network resilience. Recent market analyses reveal that the Middle East and Africa (MEA) Multimode Fibre Pigtail Market is poised for exponential growth, with projections indicating a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of approximately 8% from 2026 to 2033. This surge is driven by the rapid expansion of digital. Madagascar-based Axian Telecom has taken over local operator of fixed-broadband and pay-TV service provider Wananchi Group—the parent company of the Zuku brand. 29 (Xinhua) -- FiberHome International Technologies, a Chinese telecom firm, has signed an agreement with Kenyan-based CP Cables to boost the supply of high-speed internet products in the East African market. Djibouti Telecom CEO Mohamed Assoweh Bouh, Ethio Telecom CEO Frehiwot Tamru and Sudatel CEO Magdi Abdalla Taha. The protected terrestrial route runs through Nairobi, Kampala and Kigali, directly.
