

Large-span cable tray wholesale manufacturers

AI Overview

Reliable manufacturers and suppliers of large-span cable trays include Canhope Steel, OBO, Tongyang Electric, PohlCon, and Alibaba vendors, offering heavy-duty, corrosion-resistant solutions for industrial and commercial projects.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

Canhope Steel: Offers large-span cable trays made from high-strength galvanized steel or stainless steel, suitable for long spans and heavy cable loads. Products include ladder, perforated, and solid-bottom trays, ideal for power plants, tunnels, and industrial facilities. They provide modular designs for easy installation and customization options for specific project requirements (canhopesteel.com).

OBO: Supplies wide-span cable trays designed for industrial installations, providing flexible and reliable cable support systems for large distances. Their trays are suitable for indoor and outdoor applications, including tunnels and power plants (obo.global).

Tongyang Electric: Specializes in long-span cable trays with enhanced structural design and high load-bearing capacity. Applications include industrial and mining enterprises, underground projects, and civil defense installations. Their trays are engineered for long-distance cable routing and heavy-duty use (tongyang-electric.com).

PohlCon: Offers wide-span cable ladders and trays for industrial halls, production facilities, and plant construction. Their systems include accessories, covers, and formed parts, providing a flexible and safe cable management solution. Materials and surface finishes are available for both indoor and outdoor use (pohlcon.com).

Alibaba Suppliers: Various vendors provide span cable trays in ladder, wire mesh, and solid-bottom designs. These trays are customizable, corrosion-resistant, and suitable for industrial applications. Alibaba allows comparison of multiple suppliers for pricing and specifications (alibaba.com)...
