

Slovenian Lighting Distribution Box Supplier

AI Overview

Rexel Slovenija, Elektrosignal, and the Slovenia Business Exporter Database are key sources for lighting distribution boxes in Slovenia. Key Suppliers Rexel Slovenija is one of the largest distributors of electrical materials in Slovenia, offering a wide range of products including electrical panels, switches, and lighting distribution boxes. They provide solutions for industrial, commercial, and residential projects, along with professional advice and promotional offers on LED panels and other electrical components (Rexel Slovenija). Elektrosignal specializes in comprehensive electrical services, including design, delivery, installation, and maintenance. They supply high-quality electrical materials and distribution boxes, ensuring compliance with national and international standards. Their services are suitable for industrial, commercial, public, and residential facilities, and they offer customized solutions and professional guidance for selecting the right products (Elektrosignal). Slovenia Business Exporter Database provides access to over 7,000 Slovenian exporters, including companies that supply lighting distribution boxes. Users can search by product, company name, or business segment to find suitable suppliers and contact them directly. This database is maintained by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Slovenia and SPIRIT Slovenia, ensuring reliable and up-to-date information (Slovenia Business Exporter Database). Additional Options For specialized LED lighting solutions that may integrate with distribution boxes, companies like Intra Lighting, Grah Lighting, and LED Luks offer advanced LED systems for indoor and outdoor applications. These suppliers focus on energy efficiency, smart lighting, and customizable solutions suitable for urban, industrial, and commercial projects (ensun).
