

Western European-style cable tray price

AI Overview

Western European cable trays are available from leading manufacturers like Ekabel24 (Germany), Trayco (Belgium), Eurotray (Europe-wide), and Legrand (France), with prices varying by material, type, and load capacity.

Key Suppliers and Product Types

- Ekabel24 (Germany): Offers hot-dip galvanized steel, stainless steel, and halogen-free plastic cable trays and ladders compliant with DIN EN 61537 and international standards. Products include solid, perforated, and ladder trays suitable for industrial, commercial, and renovation projects.
- Trayco (Belgium): Specializes in mesh trays, cable ladders, and mounting systems. They provide tailored solutions and consulting for installation, with a focus on optimization and fast assembly.
- Eurotray Support Systems: Provides heavy-duty cable trays, mounting supports, and fittings for vertical and industrial applications. Their systems are suitable for data centers, food manufacturing plants, and high-load installations.
- Legrand (France): Offers the Cablofil wire mesh trays, known for easy installation and adaptability across various industrial and commercial projects.

Pricing Considerations

Cable tray prices in Western Europe depend on several factors:

- Material: Stainless steel and hot-dip galvanized steel are more expensive than halogen-free plastic.
- Type: Ladder trays for heavy power cables cost more than perforated or mesh trays.
- Load Capacity: Higher load-bearing trays for industrial applications are priced higher.
- Customization: Special coatings, non-standard sizes, and accessories (fittings, connectors) can increase costs.
- Supplier and Volume: Bulk orders often receive discounts; smaller orders may have higher per-unit costs.

For example, suppliers like Accio provide price lists with bulk discounts and highlight verified suppliers for reliability, production capacity, and rapid response, which is useful for procurement planning.
