

Where to wholesale fiber optic cables

AI Overview

Top options for wholesale fiber optic cables include Global Sources, Fiber-Market, GlobalSpec, and major manufacturers like Prysmian and Corning, offering bulk pricing, high-quality products, and global shipping. Online Wholesale Platforms

Global Sources – Offers over 680 fiber-optic cable products directly from manufacturers, including single-mode, multi-mode, and active optical cables. They provide low minimum order quantities (MOQs), factory-direct pricing, and fast shipping, making it ideal for resellers and network integrators.

Fiber-Market – Provides a wide selection of indoor, outdoor, and specialty fiber optic cables, along with transceivers, patch cords, and installation tools. They offer OEM and wholesale services, global shipping to over 100 countries, and custom solutions tailored to specific project needs.

GlobalSpec – Features a database of over 1,000 fiber optic cable suppliers, including manufacturers and distributors in the U.S. and internationally. This platform is useful for comparing suppliers, checking certifications, and sourcing high-quality cables for large-scale projects.

BaymroTech – Focuses on vetted wholesale suppliers offering military-grade and high-performance fiber optic cables suitable for 5G, data centers, and FTTH deployments. They emphasize quality assurance and reliability, which is critical for avoiding project delays due to substandard products.

Major Manufacturers

Prysmian Group – Italy-based global leader in fiber optics, offering optical fibers, cables, and connectivity solutions. They serve Europe, North America, South America, and Asia, and are known for large-scale infrastructure projects like submarine cables and 5G networks.

Corning Incorporated – U.S.-based pioneer in optical fiber technology, providing high-quality cables and photonic components for data centers and telecom networks worldwide.

Other notable manufacturers include OFS Optics, Sumitomo Electric, and Furukawa Electric, which specialize in high-performance, bend-resistant, and long-distance fiber optic solutions.
