

Zinc-nickel cable tray manufacturer

AI Overview

Leading manufacturers of zinc-nickel cable trays include Qiaobang, Vichnet, and NewReach, offering customizable, corrosion-resistant wire mesh solutions for industrial and commercial applications.

Key Manufacturers

- 1. Changzhou Qiaobang Storage Equipment Co., Ltd Specializes in nickel-zinc wire mesh cable trays with lengths of 2000 mm or 3000 mm, widths from 50 mm to 1000 mm, and heights from 50 mm to 150 mm. Offers custom sizes and configurations such as curves, slopes, and tees. Trays are lightweight (1/5 of traditional trays), ventilated, and suitable for wall, overhead, or underfloor installations. Focused on cost-effective, aesthetically pleasing solutions for small-diameter cables like data communication lines.
- 2. Vichnet (Ningbo, China) Provides nickel-zinc composite wire mesh cable trays with UL, CE, GMC, and SGS certifications. Equipped with quality control tools like salt spray machines, zinc coating testers, and welding strength testers. Offers custom fabrication based on client drawings or samples, along with a full range of accessories for installation. Known for high welding strength, load-bearing capacity, and corrosion resistance, making them suitable for global distribution.
- 3. NewReach Manufactures mesh cable trays designed for airflow, easy maintenance, and flexible cable routing. Products are ISO certified and made from corrosion-resistant galvanized steel with zinc plating. Emphasizes durability, load-bearing strength, and adaptability for systems requiring frequent updates or expansions.

Considerations When Choosing a Manufacturer

- Material and Coating: Ensure trays are zinc-nickel plated for corrosion resistance.
- Certifications: UL, CE, and ISO certifications indicate compliance with safety and quality standards.
- Customization: Ability to produce trays in specific dimensions or configurations for complex installations.
- Accessories and Installation Support: Availability of fittings, brackets, and professional guidance for installation.
- Global Shipping: Manufacturers like Vichnet leverage port access for international shipping.
